Dad

You're my superhero.
You make me smile,
When I cry.
I love you, Dad.

You are my super father.
Just like my brother,
You understand my thoughts,
And shoo away my frights.
I love you, Dad.

You bought me much,
And wanted nothing back.
You caught me when I fell,
And you never let me down.
I love you, Dad.

Dad, you sacrificed your time
To bring a smile on my face.
You saved me from great falls
And made me strong.
I love you, Dad!!!

Everybody has one superhero,
even I have one!
It's none other than my dad!

When I cry, He cracks jokes,
And makes me smile.

When I am pressured in my studies,
He is there to encourage me.

When I get scolded by my mother,
He gives me company.

When I am bored,
He starts to play with me.

When I have a problem,
He strives to stand with me.

When someone teases me,
He tells me good things about me.

When I do something not very nice,
He tells me, "It's superb!"

If he knows I am in a problem,
He stands as a wall.

When I make mistakes,
He forgives me.

When I want something, he doesn't say a word,
He just goes and gets it for me.

When I am feeling lonely,
He will turn into my friend.

He feels happy when I am doing something good.
He is an awesome dad. He's my dad!

SUPERHEROES

My superhero has been in an Indian ghetto.
Coming from a human UFO
and has never made any foe.
He has removed all my sorrows.

He is very generous
And has great focus to achieve success.
He has taught me not to do bad,
I'm very glad that he is none other than my dad.

You have given me proper mould,
Your value is more than that of gold.
You taught me to be very bold,
Which helped me to get rid of heavy load.

Daddy.....I love you, you're my real super hero.

My super hero is Gandhiji.
He is polite and quiet,
He stopped violence.
followed non-violence.

A freedom fighter who inspired many combat fighters.
He was not dependent,
He gained us independence.

He is a Subhashi,
And banned Durbhashis.
He followed Ahimsa.

SUPERHEROES

My superhero, my dad,
Who had a huge smile,
When I was born.
He taught me to believe,
He taught me to never give up.

He always brought a smile to my face,
Which he would extend till a track of race,
He would never let a tear pass on my cheek,
And never let me feel weak,
He always listens to my silly talks,
And even laughed if I cracked a joke.

He bought me everything I wanted
And made me feel like a princess.
He may get hurt because of me,
“Dear, not because of you”, he would say.

He always showed me the right path,
And even at times shouted at me ,
But shouting indeed had infused the love.

I always will owe him,
For what he has done for me,
May be a thank you wouldn't be enough
But Daddy, that's all I have.

Beyond the ocean
And high above the mountain
There my dad stands,
Holding a golden cup with bliss.

Holding my little fingers,
He taught me to stand and play.
He helped me to overcome all obstacles,
Even if the key is far away.

He is my superhero
He is my dad
He is a gift of mine
And always my lifeline

He can take me from dark to light,
And like how for the world, superheroes fight,
My dad is superman and I witness,
The way he fights for me for I am his princess.

SUPERHEROES

A superhero saves the people
becomes a big role model for many people
But sometimes a superhero can become a villain
A twist can happen in a superhero's life.

At a time he will be the saviour,
And at a time, he will be the destroyer
And the superhero I'm going to tell about is
The savior of America

He is a person who is a saviour and a destroyer,
He is the role model and the villain;
He was once inspired by Captain America
But doesn't look like him.

He is Captain America's adopted son
Born to save the world from a deadly virus.

For me, my father is my superhero.
He takes care of me,
For him everything is easy,
But, he's just so lazy at home
He tells me to do his work,
I have to go up and down to do it.

He is very quick in his work,
But still he is late to come home.
I know he is like Superman,
He can shoot laser beams
and solve my problems,
And give me lots of happiness

He can run fast and win races,
Which is very easy for him;
He can win everything because
he is my dad.

I have a lot of faith in him,
I know he can do it
One day he will be at the peak.

He is very active,
And very kind,
May this be with him every day,
and every time.

I even accept his anger,
Which is to help me.
I even like his punishment,
Which transforms me .

I love him so much
And he is my DAD!

My superhero is my dad
He is never sad
He's always with me
When I'm in need.

He takes care of me so much,
That I get energy from his sweet touch.

He's always in my heart,
With his little cart,
And plays with me,
When I'm bored in the mart.

It's very hard to be like him
Because he's the one who can light the dim.

My superhero is my father,
For him all the joys in the world
I can gather,
I can do anything,
Just for him.

He's the one who takes me all around,
And loves it when I get awards
And I always look up to him for everything.

I want him to be proud of me
So that I can be the one,
Who can love him the best.

My dad is the best
He is never at rest
He works for me day and night
And in the darkness, he's the light.

My superhero is a legend,
He is God's favorite agent.
He wears a cape of red,
He never just lays in bed.

He saves the innocent people,
And he loves maple.
The great super hero
Never gets a zero.
He has such great power,
Saves people in the right hour.
His name is a great hero,
But he is never like Emperor Nero.

He is never to be forgotten,
since he is never rotten.

Superheroes are magical beyond compare,
They can even pick up a wand and say “Emancipare!”

Flash has super speed,
Unfortunately he’s not as fast as Godspeed.

My superhero is none other than me,
As I am very difficult to see.

Spiderman has nice control,
Which he uses to patrol.

The people think Superman’s a God,
And don’t forget the amazingly talking Underdog.

Superheroes are very much inexplicable,
Some are even very despicable.

Tikka man

He is not just a simple person,
Obviously he is a superhero.
Because he's not with some superpower,
But just a stall of tikkas and churros.

He makes tikkas faster than Flash,
And eats them even faster.
And if you steal from his plate,
You are prone to disaster.
At the crack of dawn,

He's just a log sleeping on his bed.
But by the end of the day,
He's the cool personality
I've just said.

According to him,
life is a bowl of chutney,
Full of sweet and sour flavours.
And that's why at the bad times,
His churros are my saviours.

His life is full of unfathomability,
With all of my favourite abilities.
And that is why I tell you,
He is the best!

My superhero is my dad,
And people might think I'm following a fad,
But that's not the thing at all,
Because he was the first one to catch me when I fell.

He always protected me from the bad,
And cheered me up when I was sad.
He had always given the best to me,
Without expecting anything back; just for free.

His heart is only filled with love ,
And he can be scary sometimes or as peaceful as a dove.
But even if he scolded me I will still love him the same.
Because he has helped me a lot, even if I didn't have any fame.

My dad wanted me to be someone in my life,
And live life to the fullest without any lies.
He always thought of me in the depths of his heart,
And he had love for me even if my game wasn't fair.

I would always love to be known as Daddy's special girl,
Daddy's one and only, wonderful girl.

My hero is Coolpans 64
He comes when the villains tear
through the land
He calmly grabs his compressor
And fights back to take them out.

His brother is Coolbro 64
When he walks, villains tremble to run
When he fights back with the shotgun
His lead balls leave no prisoners.

His elder cousin sister is Cooldice 64
Villains never know when they are struck,
She walks with her SMG'S,
Her targets never know what hit them.

His younger cousin is Coldhour 64
The hour is dangerous when she strikes,
Her wits, reflexes and LMG'S
Have never left a second chance for villains.

At last, his cousin brother Coolkiller 64
The blast rings in the villains ears,
His stealth and his snipers and his bombs.
Have never missed their marks and chance.

This is the cold gang,
Villains tremble in their wake.
They never miss their mark nor chance.
They take down their targets, unknown and fast

The Actual Hero

A true hero is Batman,
People try to act like Batman.
People even like Iron-man,
Who wears a steel suit
and acts like a superhero.

The actual superheroes are army men.
Ready to give up the life they have,
And shoots like “BAM, BAM”.

We should always salute and respect them,
Never take the reel heroes as role model
but that of a soldier – a real hero

There was a superhero,
Who said his name was Nitro,
Because he could travel at the speed of light
And when he ran he became so bright.

He stopped all the crimes
And loved all the mimes.
He said he was well-built physically,
And even mentally.

He was always happy with what he had
Even though he never got paid for stopping the bad,
He never wanted any privilege,
He was grown way above his age.

He was really good at fighting,
And he could summon lightning ,
Which would be very frightening
As well as brightening.

He said he hated Zeus,
Because he could cause an electric fuse.

The supreme living being on Earth
Came to me just after my birth,
With his heart filled with mirth,
He radiated warmth and heat like a hearth

He protects me every hour,
And gives me a great deal in his power
By nurturing me and maximizing my health bar
So much that it could sustain a World War.

Oh! It is not only the hero I miss,

everlasting bliss

Above every single thing I miss,
Is my father's affectionate kiss.

A superhero is a person
whose strength is beyond comparison
And to challenge, nobody would dare.
My superhero has a secret lair.

He is as fast as lightning

My superhero is a person
