

PREPARATION

Message! Message! Message!
There comes the message
Which brings us fear,
For that important thing that is near.

Hurry up, O' dear!
To make things clear
Never ever panic
Or you may have to get a tonic.

Be confident in what you do
To make yourself glad
That brings joy
To everyone's heart.

Do you know what
The message is about?
Its all about the exam
That you are going to attempt

Exam! Exam! Exam!
Oh, dear !
Let's prepare well,
And ease ourselves.

PREPARATION

The soldiers are prepared for a battle,
Let their guns rattle!
The farmer prepares to harvest the crops
Before the season drops.
The teacher prepares to teach
And the preacher prepares to preach
The athlete prepares to bolt away
Under the shining sun's ray.
The author prepares to write a book
And the chef prepares a dish to cook
The customers in the hotel prepare to eat,
The animals in the circus try to do a feat!
They prepare and prepare all day long
Like a rhythmic song!

PREPARATION

Exams are here,
So log on to your study gear.
Don't let exhaustion and anxiety overtake you,
You are going to make it through.

Take a deep breath and relax,
Because you remember all the facts.
Write your exam with a calm mind,
And you will not fall behind.

As exams are over,
A joy overtakes you,
As you know that you finally made it through.

PREPARATION

Welcome to the season of preparation,
Filled with surprises and imagination.
Spring is here and so leaves begin abscission,
Ants and birds start collecting food for their next season.

Birds and humans dream of shelter construction,
One builds nests and the other, buildings with good elevation.
Farmers begin cultivation, until the next harvest season,
The money they profit as remuneration,
They give it back for house renovation and child's education.
It's time for the school to test our education,
We focus on doing our best to get a distinction...

Looking forward to get a promotion,
We start packing our bags and start for our destination,
a nice summer vacation...

Welcome to the season of preparation,
Filled with surprises and imagination!

PREPARATION

Who does not like festivals?

Diwali, Pongal, Holi, Christmas, Janmashtami, what not?

For Diwali, I'd ask mom if the lamps are ready.

For Holi, I'd enquire my dad about the colour powders.

I'd plead with my brother to be awake for the midnight Pooja for Janmashtami,

I'd promise my friend to bake a plum cake and make carrot juice for X'mas!

I'd assure my teacher to shout " Pongalo Pongal" when the pot overflows...

These are my festive preparations!

PREPARATION

Gear up your minds; for,
Spring is here and summer will follow!
May your minds feel refreshed...
Have some milk and almonds for an alert mind,
Go to sleep and wake the next morn to the sound of the beep...
Exams are near and so are mangoes...
Let's leave aside all the video games and fun,
And prepare whole-heartedly for our exams.

A hand holding a small green plant with soil, symbolizing growth and preparation. The background is a soft, light green gradient.

Exams are hard,
Exams are creepy,
Everything sounds hard.
Exams come for two weeks.
Hipping and hopping...
Students consider it bad luck as,
It is still hopping
Around our brain...
Until school is over it never ceases to hop.
No happiness on anyone's face.
Only hard time shows up as we move on
Preparing for our exams!!!

PREPARATION

Children O' children,
Exams are coming soon.
They create tension,
Which I do not have to mention!
They make us frightened and feel hopeless,
But we have to make ourselves strong, smart and fill ourselves with,
Hope!

Nature O' Nature,
You are spectacular and beautiful,
You make me delightful.
The blossoming fragrant flowers,
The tall green robust tree and
The blue sky,
Makes me feel wonderful!
I'm prepared to move ahead and enjoy my life!

It's come, Spring has come!
The farmers start growing crops,
Brand new crops for us.
It's come, Spring has come!

It's come, the exam season has come!
Students have geared up,
To write their exams.
It's come, the exam season has come!

It's come, the festival of colours has come!
With colour powder in our hands,
We frolic about...
It's come, the festival of colours has come!
