

PARADISE

*My paradise is my home,
Which I would love to be in,
I love my home cause it's like
Living in a palace!
It contains all the love,
Of my mom, dad, brother and sister.
It's a 100 star hotel where we get freedom,
So that we can have a lot of fun,
I have toys to play with,
TV to watch movies,
Stationery to write with,
A comfortable bed,
A kitchen to cook in, and many more things.
My home is a paradise!
My brother and sister are cute,
And they are fun to play with,
A home is a paradise!
So love your homes!*

PARADISE

*Paradise for me,
Is none other than home,
A place where I can be myself,
A place where I am free.*

*Paradise is the smell of delicious homemade food,
Or just lying in bed all day,
Without having to worry about
What anyone's going to say.*

*The cool morning breeze,
coming in through the window,
Or the pretty sight of the sea,
Or even just the feeling of my mother's warm hug,
A place I always want to be.*

*Home is paradise,
The best place in the world,
A place where you feel secure,
A place where you can be yourself.*

PARADISE

*Paradise a wonderful land,
Everyone wants to be there; each and every man.
Paradise is a place where you like to be the most,
A place you think of when you're lost.
Let's go to Paradise,
You can enjoy your life there twice.
You can eat, sleep and dance,
Now don't miss your chance.
Everybody can't go to Paradise,
You should go there and this is my advice.*

PARADISE

*My paradise is my Rajkot,
It is the place where I live,
My most favourite thing about Rajkot,
Is temples and food,
I love it so much!*

*It is the place where I was born,
It is the place where I took my first steps.
The way the lights glow at night
Is so good!*

*Rajkot is as cool as other cities,
It is a city which is kept neat.
I love my city!!!*

PARADISE

*A home is no less than a paradise,
Where parents and little cousins you see.
A beautiful morning and night which is pleasant,
Is happily felt by others and me.*

*Every evening we all assemble,
Together in the drawing room,
With ice creams in summer, and coffee in winter,
Admiring the flowers in the spring bloom.*

*Family is just a mixture of different ideas,
It's the best you gift you can get.
People so caring and loving,
Surely you would never have met.*

*So, love your home to the fullest,
For a paradise it is surely the best.*

PARADISE

*It is my dream to have my own paradise,
Which is full of good people.*

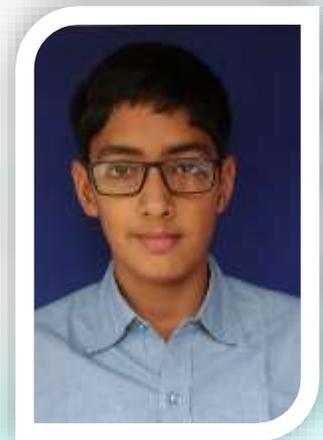

*And they serve food like pizza and French fries,
And they will never serve any curd rice.*

*It'll be of my choice,
Everyone will make noise,
As much as they can.*

*It'll be like a chocolate world,
All the boys will have their hair curled.*

*We'll play Badminton, Soccer,
Cricket, basketball, tennis freely;
We'll live there forever happily!*

*Paradise! Paradise!
Paradise! Paradise!*

PARADISE

*Once I was in Paradise,
A land I can never despise.
I saw many shooting stars,
And I saw many fast cars.
I ate cotton candy,
Where the ground was sandy.
This is the best place ever.*

*Forget it? NEVER EVER!
This is my kind of paradise.
I loved that place,
As I had no problems to face.
I got many friends,
And those memories will never end.
I love paradise.*

PARADISE

*A place free of corruption,
Where the land bloomed with God's creation,
A place where everyone was given consideration,
And it was against the law to follow discrimination.*

*Where no one felt alone, no one was ignored,
And there were too many activities to get bored,
Where everyone was accepted in the society,
And not a single person suffered in poverty.*

*Where adventure was the main game,
And no one was greedy to earn fame.
Where everyone loved each other,
And never ever hesitated to stay together.*

*Where all religions existed in harmony,
And the number of joyful people were so many.
Where all the people were honest,
And where love travelled the fastest.*

*Where rain drops pattered,
And small conflicts never mattered,
Where everyone was grateful to God,
And everyone agreed with a smile and a nod.*

*Where's this wonderful place? We need to find out,
Don't be jealous and sit there and pout,
If we put our minds together, and use God's boon,
I'm sure we'll find our paradise soon.*

PARADISE

*A paradise is heavenly,
With luxury and comfort,
With everything in order,
From the button to the shirt.*

*A paradise is perfection,
From the top to the toe,
It is only a place for loved ones,
And not for any foe.*

*Paradise is the best,
With material to be admired,
And the main hearth burning,
With the full strength of fire.*

*Paradise is like a magic spell,
Adored by man and God.
And if they asked if
I'd want a reservation,
I'd love to give a nod.*

PARADISE

*A place where you find burger instead of rice,
May be your dream and your paradise.*

*But for me, the place of paradise,
Is where my mom is in front of my eyes.*

*In the path of joy and sorrow,
She is the one whom I follow.*

*Her love is like a sea; wide, not narrow,
In which lies the boat I row.*

*When she feeds me even raw rice,
It feels like I'm eating fries.*

*Wherever you live with your mom, it is nice,
And she makes you feel like you're in paradise.*

PARADISE

*Walls of candy, roads without cars,
Pillars of liquorice not sweet but sour.
My hope of reaching there is not too far,
In my fun-filled paradise.*

*Beds of jelly, toys of dough,
Lots to buy at prices very low.
To visit this place, what heights I would go,
In my fun-filled paradise.*

*Pools of chocolate, games all day,
No homework, everything my way,
My home; a big villa near the bay,
Is my fun-filled paradise.*

Paradise! Paradise! Paradise!
Welcome visitors to my land of paradise.
A land filled with chocolates and candies,
To satisfy your hunger and desires.

Spend the time of your life here,
Our idea of fun is interesting and clear.
Goodies beyond your imagination,
All made for your satisfaction.

Everything in this land,
Is edible and grand.

This is a paradise like never before,
So bring along a group, to enjoy more.
Just wait to get your minds blown,
To find this paradise, just call me alone.

PARADISE

My paradise is cricket field,
It is the place where I feel proud,
Cricket is my favourite game,
I like it so much!

When I go to the cricket field,
I bowl with my highest speed,
I want to take that wooden stump,
Out of that hard soil.

Cricket is as thrilling as a movie,
It is a game which needs strength,
For me cricket is a piece of cake,
Because I love this game.

Paradise is a beautiful land,
Complete with green trees.
It has chirping birds and golden sand.

One would love to go and live there,
After leaving the life he had to bear.

It is, for some people reserved,
Only for people who deserved.

Still, it is a great place to reside,
And I'd give anything to build
A house in paradise, and live inside....

Paradise. How does it look? How will it feel?
We just want to be there.

The common idea that paradise,
Is rich, full of chocolates and drinks;
It can't be true.

I wonder if there is paradise at all.
And who will be there once for all.

It is only faith that makes you feel it's there.
A place we dream of when we're in despair.
