

Guru: The Unwavering Faith

My guru is so great,
He teaches us good values.
Words from his mouth,
Is nectar to the ears.

His mind very pure,
Like the clear water.
Purifying us in the process,
With his great knowledge.

There are so many kinds of nouns,
my guru taught me how to pronounce.
I can tell you more which goes till earth's core about my guru's good qualities.

She is my one and only guru and
I am her one and only student.
You are the best whether there is east or west.
You are very kind you'll always be in my mind.

My guru is my inspiration,
One I can see through deep meditation.
My guru is so great,
So is my unwavering faith.

She has a great mind,
She leaves personal time behind.
She is a visionary,
With amazing creativity.

She is wise,
Every action precise.
She is the best,
She has surpassed all tests.

How is my guru so intelligent?
Why are they teaching me?
How do they makes understand?
Why do they give punishment?

Some teachers are very strict.
Some teachers are very helpful.
Some teachers are kind
Others are interesting.

They give punishments,
To realise our mistakes .
They teaches us
To make us better.

They make us enjoy,
By giving knowledge.
They don't make us learn
But we are learning because of them.

You make us smile,
with you our laughter can be heard from a mile.

You love us like no other you are just like our second mother.

You teach us what is right,
on our bad mind you shed some light.

You make us face our fears,
to us you are most dear.

You make us brave
a teacher like you, we won't forget till our grave

O guru! Us you used to guide, we will forever be by your side.

It can be morning or noon,
His guidance is always like a boon,
Never afraid of the dark,
Because he will leave his mark.

Life won't go the way you planned,
But you still have to make your stand.
Enjoy life like a roller coaster ride,
Shut your eyes and hold on tight.

My unwavering faith in my guru,
Has led me like the sunlight,
Allowing me to learn and grow
I have never felt.

My guru having all my faith,
When in doubt, never makes me wait.
Any problem I will go to him,
He will solve it in a fraction.

Makes us play games,
And narrates stories.
Scolding us sometimes,
For our mistakes.

He is in my heart,
I shall never let him depart.

My guru so nice,
So kind and so thoughtful.
You help me so much ,
Even if I don't understand.

You will work day and night with me,
And make me achieve high.
And when I stand high, you say give me a high five.
You are beside me in my happy times,
And you face my hard times .

You make my days bright,
With your spark filled sight .
You are the best guru I have ever had,
And I know you will be with me forever.

Guru: The Unwavering Faith

A person who fashioned my mind,
When I close my eyes,
She is the one who comes to light.
A super woman with a super power,
She who has the blessings to shower.

She is the first of all in my life,
She is the one who taught me with pride.
Each time when in trouble,
My guru would always be the double.

So many lessons are left to learn,
Each topic would be very fun.
She has a divine power,
To love me like no other.

My guru is my best friend,
A person who will always lend a helping hand.

When I think of gurudev,
I think of peace.
Like beautiful birds,
Chirping in the trees.

My hand together,
I get ready to chant
There is always "I will"
And never "I can't".

Chanting his name,
My devotion soaring,
It chant for hours,
It never gets boring.

Getting ready to sleep,
In the night,
Dreaming of gurudev
With through so bright.

The ideal man,
Who I have strong faith.
Knowledge he possesses finite,
But my love for him infinite.

His wonderful might,
The way he accepts,
The brightest of days,
The darkest of night.

His unmatched courage,
Intuition strong as a sage.
Keeping his rage contained,
Patient with us.

Our guru, our teacher
Guiding us through, the ocean of difficulties.
We can follow him,
With faith in our heart.

He is the one with us,
In our high and low times.
We can keep our faith in him,
Even if the problem is at its peak.

If you believe in him,
You can see miracles in our life.
He also makes us believe in ourselves,
With which you can achieve thing in life.

My guru is the best,
She aces her tests.
My guru likes to teach,
In her class we don't sleep.

We talk a little about life,
A lot more about books.
Our lessons long,
When heard, feels like a poem.

Sometimes we acts cool,
Our guru calls us a fool.
My guru is not a teacher,
She is my ideal.

She who stands tall,
Like a supporting wall.
She helps me break barriers,
Makes my life a little more merrier.

Guiding me all the way,
Even if I leave she stays.
Always by my side,
When there is a tide.

The woman referred to here,
Is one who is very dear.
One who wants me to be better,
Is my guru, my mother.

My guru, my unwavering faith,
The one, skilled with good trait.
You stop me from fights,
Making me reach heights.

You teach me some subjects,
Which can get rid of my future pressure for budgets.
To give knowledge, you are a king,
Helping me, like a bird without wings.

Makes my life as smooth as butter,
Making it grow and better.

The person who we can depend.
Thinking about him my brains is stunned.

A person who spreads positivity,
A man who destroys negativity,
A friend who gives happiness,
Teaching me what is kindness.

He is filled with thoughts,
Not to be had what he taught,
He opened his knowledge gate,
So that I have a good fate.

Guru makes we shine,
As tall a pine.
Guru keeps our brain working,
How is my son is what his thinking.

My guru my life,
My guru makes me strive,
My guru my role model,
My guru is my mom.

She taught me to be a great person,
Guiding me in my world.
She is the greatest motivator,
And the adviser.

She takes care of me lovingly,
Instructing me kindly.
Through my lifetime,
She will remain the best guru.

My gurus teach me everything,
And I understand it within a blink.
My gurus are my parents,
They teach me with a beautiful fragrance.

Everytime I make a mistake,
They tell me not to take a break.
My gurus are my unwavering faith,
For me they are devs.

Everytime they give me advise,
I listen to them, knowing they are wise.
They sometimes can be harsh,
But that is for me to be like stars.

They guide me love and wisdom,
And scold me seldom.

They help me with my struggles,
Now I can solve all of my puzzles.

They help me score,
Without a drop of bore.
Be it wisdom or fun or love,
It is always the best.

They help me find my path,
And teach me my math.
My guru, They are never far,
They are always in my heart!

Oh! My guru,
Oh! My teacher,
The never ending faith on you,
Is always new.

The lessons you teach,
Helps me think about my goals and to reach.
The love you have in me,
Is always my cup of tea.

You correct me when I am wrong'
So I sing your glory as a song.
Your teaching was always fun,
So I respect every one.

When the light wasn't there,
He was there.
A person who thought what is success,
Left his success for us.

The person who gave us the answer to the question,
The faith on him is unquestionable.
The teaching he gave,
Were a life lesson.

The person who thought us the importance,
Is the most important.
He teaches us not for his selfishness,
But for us.

He is the one I have the most faith in,
He is none but my guru.

You Teach me what is right and wrong,
Even when the day has been long!

You correct all the mistakes,
That I very often make,

You teach me like I am your child,
Always keeping your voice mild!

You teach me to always share,
With ever ending love and care.

You tell me so many stories,
You also teach me peoples glories.

I don't know how to thank you,
For i am always filled with gratitude for you.
