THE MAGIC OF WORDS

Words are so magical they are Without them, no one will be where they are.

So powerful they are,
So don't forget how important they are.

The type of words you use,
Should be the type

You want others to use

I can change lives

So can it ruin lives

Once spoken,

Can't be taken

Choose them carefully

And use them wisely.

THE MAGIC OF WORDS

A single word,
Can light up someone's world
A compliment
Is all that should be sent
By going the extra mile
We can make a person smile
Something we wish people would say
To make our day
Why don't we go first?
For the comfort boundary to burst
We just have to wait,
But it becomes too late
It's only a few words of kindness,
To make a day full of happiness

THE MAGIC OF WORDS

Even a single letter
Adding move to make it better
Nothing but a word
Which everyone uses in the world
One word, just one
Can either make their day
Or make their happiness delay
One word just one,
Can make them question their existence
Or make themselves their own
So marks my WORDS
Whatever you say
Will always come back to you someday

THE MAGIC OF WORDS

And when they enter our ears
it is so fantastic
Words can be expressed through writings, poems, and essays
It can also lead one into different thought mazes
If the words spoken are bad
It can make a person's mind sad
The magical words
Can make a person's life better
It does not matter
how much ever he stutters
For good words make one's surroundings positive,
Removing thoughts that are negative

THE MAGIC OF WORDS

Prevails again the magic of words
Grace and style embarrassed by all
Speeches and write ups
Learning new skills
Listening and reading
Reminiscing old things
Yeilding have many
In front of thy might
Your importance no one can deny
Holding the power
To make or break bonds
A single word
Slashes all in faith

THE MAGIC OF WORDS

God's precious gift
Can get life a supreme lift
Can make life go adrift
If we don't think and use it swift
Can make life elegant
And make it precious
It can also make it discordant
And Ruthless and barbaros
Can bring life expertise
And make it proficient
Can make us "Please"
And make life deficient
The commanding usher of life
And the heart vigour of life
Can be used as a knife
And keeps us alive

The most faithful ally
On whom we can ever rely
And the most fearful arrangement
Who can get life a spooky mist
The uncharted reality of life
Is to craft a deliberate pick
That can make you sigh
With deplore or peace
