

HAPPY MEMORY

Loads of happy memories,
And it's been a while,
I look back and smile,
To those joyful times.
Laughing with my dad,
At jokes that don't make sense.
Learning with my mother,
And decided she needs spectacles,
With a very strong lens.
Those are my happy memories,
I take them wherever I go,
And I look forward to making more.

HAPPY MEMORY

I have many small Happy Memories,
Which I never forget,
I look back at them with a smiling face,
And they made me laugh.

The day when my brother and I
Had the World War III , with all the dish soap.

It started with the grabbing of the remote,
And ended Jumping up and down in the house.

HAPPY MEMORY

Happy memories are certainly pleasing,

But not at all satisfying.

Cause whenever we feel it,

We want more of it.

Happy memories are always in our mind.

We can also make them,

Just by being kind.

Cause the joy of others,

Is the joy of ours.

Hence we make happy memories,

About which we think for hours.

HAPPY MEMORY

Some moments become our memories,
And they are truly so sweet.
They make us so happy,
That our hearts become really sappy.
They always find a way or a path,
Just to enter our heart.
They make us remember our past,
So we can just go and have a blast.
These memories can never be forgotten,
Because they are really hearten.
They are very special to me,
Because they give me a spree.

HAPPY MEMORY

Moments are happy and sad,
Can be with your mom or dad.
Time flies away leaving memories in your way,
Memories that you cherish day and night.
Memories special in our heart,
Always manage around their path.
Stare always right on our face,
Sit and fix all our gaze.
Keep it deep buried in,
This memes you forget your sin.
Memories I bury in my heart today,
Only god knows if I'll relieve it someday.

HAPPY MEMORY

Memories which we all cared,
To the smallest incidents we shared.
Endless laughters and huge smiles,
Catching moments while walking miles.
Enjoying days and nights every time,
Participating in the funniest mimes.
Hope to never forget these memories,
And making them life's best series.
These are the happy and beautiful days,
That is what everyone says.

HAPPY MEMORY

Playing with my sister,
And late night movies
Our never-ending road trips,
They're what I cherish.

The cricket matches that I play,
I look forward to everyday
These memories I cherish,
I know they won't go away.

HAPPY MEMORY

The hot milk and biscuits,
With friends at night.
The smile on our face,
When we see our parents.
The list is endless,
And I hope it stays the same way.
From dancing in class,
To singing in dorm.
Watching netflix at home,
To late night TV with family.
Each memory with its uniqueness.
The happy memories that,
We create together are endless.

HAPPY MEMORY

Happy Memories through my life,
I have many but some I cherish the most.
From listening to music with my sister late night,
To dancing and singing in the rain.
From chasing my friend to the other end,
To eating wai wai at the oddest times.
From playing basketball till I pass out,
To having fun with my family.
There are millions of more memories
But these are the best of them all!

HAPPY MEMORY

Batting & Bowling,

Is what I do.

The dreams I have,

Always come true.

Everyday maths,

Is all I want.

Also ok with what,

I have got.

My cherished moments never end,

Our broken friendships I always mend.

The memories in the photos,

Make me cherish each one!

HAPPY MEMORY

Memories are those which,

We make every single day.

Memories are one of the best things,

Which we ever cherish in life.

The childhood memories,

And the school day memories,

By doing something funny or being like a bunny.

The memories are the once ,

Which stay forever.

They will make us happy,

Whenever we feel lonely.

HAPPY MEMORY

When I think about how our days go,
Sometimes fast and sometimes slow.
We definitely had a lot of fun,
When we played under the sun.
Our classes were the best,
But not when we had a test.
Whenever we used to rarely fight,
We always used to make out by night.
Let us cherish our memories together,
Which will stay with us forever.

HAPPY MEMORY

People come and go through our highs and lows.

Some moments in the past are the one's which always last.

All the fun and drama on a sleepover in pyjamas,

Late night ice creams to sharing our dreams.

Parties in the night never having to fight,

From running wild on the beach to finding places to reach.

Dancing like crazy, always trying to be lazy.

Playing in the rain and accepting we have no brain.

Laughing all the day,

Standing under the cool breeze are some of my memories.

HAPPY MEMORY

Those memories we made together,

Will stay rooted forever.

The time well spent,

With not a single dent.

Those ups and downs all the way,

Are the ones which stay.

It will never go away,

Getting remembered everyday.

HAPPY MEMORY

The time of laughter and smiles,
Still running around in my mind.
As those sweet memories of joy,
Of playing as kids with a toy.

Oh! My dear memories of sorrow and love,
I will never forget you, my beloved.

Oh! My happy past,
I will remember until my last.

HAPPY MEMORY

It all started in kindergarten,
Where we could barely
Pronounce each others names.
This friendship is filled with joy,
We learnt alphabet to algebra together.
Its large and beautiful events,
Which are filled with beautiful moments.
This life is unfilled without her,
Oh my dear memory! You are lucky,
Because you have her in you.

HAPPY MEMORY

Counting days from five hours to five months,

Eagerly waiting to meet our family.

Having colour fights at school during holi,

Are memories that will always cherish.

Guessing menus in class,

Looking forward to ice-cream and paneer lunches,

Scrolling through netflix for a new movie at home,

Are memories we always love.

Adventurous family trips and energetic educational trips

Are the happiest memories we make.

These best moments turn into memories,

With such wonderful people.

HAPPY MEMORY

Lying on my mother's lap

Listening to her stories

Those are one of my

Happy Memories.

Flipping through the album

Where the flashbacks were awesome

Those memories will

Always lay in my heart.

Walking in the nature

Surrounded by those butterflies.

Oh! How happy I feel

These are my happy memories.

HAPPY MEMORY

Many memories come and go,
Always give the lead memories a throw.
Good memories you should always keep,
Always cherish memories and never weep.
Happy memories with you would grow,
While other memories go with the flow.
Memories that are stored in our heart,
We should never let them fall apart.
Many memories come and go,
Always give the lead memories a throw.

HAPPY MEMORY

Oh these happy memories,

Which are unforgettable,

From the time of our birth,

Till our last breath.

Sometimes with my family,

Sometimes with my friends

From running in the crossroads,

Falling down and getting hurt in the end.

The journey with these memories are like my lifeline.

I wish I could enjoy,

These memories again

Oh these happy memories

You are the best!
